ENQUIRIES 1–3

ENQUIRY 1: RECRUITMENT & PROPAGANDA

1. ► Lord Horatio Kitchener (Secretary of State for War) — Kitchener predicted a long, grueling war requiring an army of millions, launching mass recruitment campaigns. [✓] [X]

2. ► Pals Battalions — Units like the Accrington Pals and Grimsby Chums allowed men from the same town or factory to serve side-by-side. [✓] [X]

3. ►► A wave of patriotic enthusiasm, peer pressure, and the popular belief the war would be over by Christmas — Young men viewed enlistment as an exciting adventure, an escape from mundane factory work, and a moral duty. [✓] [X]

4. ►► A white feather — The White Feather movement used public humiliation to shame men who had not enlisted into joining the army. [✓] [X]

5. ►►► Catastrophic casualties at the Somme wiped out an entire generation from specific towns on a single day — When battalions were shattered on 1 July 1916, single communities lost hundreds of young men simultaneously, devastating northern towns. [✓] [X]

6. ►►► It made the war an inescapable national trauma touching every household and community across Britain — The scale of bereavement transformed political expectations, sparking demands for universal voting rights and social welfare reform. [✓] [X]

ENQUIRY 2: TRENCH WARFARE & THE SOMME

7. ► Heavy Artillery (high-explosive shells and shrapnel) — Relentless artillery barrages pulverized trenches, caused catastrophic physical trauma, and induced severe shell shock. [✓] [X]

8. ► Trench Foot — Prolonged exposure to damp mud caused fungal infection, numbness, and gangrene, often requiring amputation. [✓] [X]

9. ►► Enemy machine-gunners from firing along the whole trench and to contain artillery blast shockwaves — The angular layout prevented enfilade fire and ensured that an artillery shell detonating in a trench contained its blast to a single bay. [✓] [X]

10. ►► A third of the shells were duds and deep German concrete bunkers protected troops underground — When the bombardment lifted, German machine-gunners emerged from deep dugouts to mow down British infantry crossing No Man's Land. [✓] [X]

11. ►►► Critics condemn his costly attrition tactics, while defenders argue he adapted modern technology to win in 1918 — Haig presided over 57,000 casualties on 1 July 1916, but later mastered combined-arms warfare in the decisive 1918 Hundred Days Offensive. [✓] [X]

12. ►►► Combined-arms coordination crushed barbed wire and suppressed machine guns, restoring mobility — Allied coordination of artillery, tanks, infantry, and aircraft replaced suicidal frontal charges with rapid mobile breakthroughs. [✓] [X]

ENQUIRY 3: EMPIRE TROOPS & GLOBAL REACH

13. ► Over 1.3 million Indian soldiers and personnel — Indian regiments fought in the freezing mud of Ypres, in Mesopotamia (Iraq), and across the deserts of Palestine. [✓] [X]

14. ► The ANZACs — The catastrophic Gallipoli campaign against the Ottoman Empire became a defining foundation of Australian and New Zealand national identity. [✓] [X]

15. ►► Knock the Ottoman Empire out of the war and open a Black Sea supply route to Russia — Churchill sought an indirect maritime route to relieve pressure on the Western Front, but Ottoman forces pinned the Allies to the beaches. [✓] [X]

16. ►► Racial prejudice from British authorities restricted Black colonial troops to heavy labouring and ammunition loading — Despite volunteering eagerly, colonial authorities feared training Black soldiers in combat arms would threaten postwar imperial rule. [✓] [X]

17. ►►► Postwar imperial propaganda centered national remembrance exclusively on white European soldiers on the Western Front — War memorials and histories celebrated British sacrifices in Flanders, sidelining the hundreds of thousands of African, Indian, and Caribbean troops. [✓] [X]

18. ►►► Colonial troops who fought for "freedom in Europe" returned home demanding equal political self-determination — Sacrifices made by Indian and African soldiers undermined European claims of racial superiority and catalyzed early anti-colonial movements. [✓] [X]

ENQUIRIES 4–5

ENQUIRY 4: HOME FRONT & WOMEN AT WAR

19. ► DORA (Defence of the Realm Act) — DORA permitted the government to censor newspapers, take over factories, nationalize railways, and dilute beer. [✓] [X]

20. ► "Canary Girls" — Toxic exposure to sulphuric acid and TNT stained skin yellow, damaged lungs, and caused early miscarriages in munitions plants. [✓] [X]

21. ►► Voluntary enlistment collapsed while devastating casualties on the Western Front created an acute manpower shortage — The bloody slaughter at Neuve Chapelle and Loos exhausted the volunteer army, forcing Prime Minister Asquith to pass the Military Service Act. [✓] [X]

22. ►► German Unrestricted Submarine Warfare sank merchant ships, causing severe civilian food shortages and panic buying — U-boats sank hundreds of cargo vessels in the Atlantic, threatening Britain with starvation until rationing ensured equitable food sharing. [✓] [X]

23. ►►► Women could capably perform heavy industrial labor, operate machinery, and sustain the war economy — Nearly a million women worked in munitions, transport, and agriculture, disproving Victorian arguments that women were physically and mentally frail. [✓] [X]

24. ►►► It created an undeniable moral debt, though the 1918 Act granted votes only to women over 30 with property — Politicians could not deny the vote to women who saved the nation, but established older age thresholds to avoid a female voting majority. [✓] [X]

ENQUIRY 5: 1918 ARMISTICE & REMEMBRANCE

25. ► 11 November 1918 at 11:00 am (the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month) — The armistice was signed in a railway carriage in the Compiègne forest, silencing the guns after four years of slaughter. [✓] [X]

26. ► The Kiel Mutiny — Sailors refused to launch a suicidal final naval attack against the Royal Navy, triggering worker-soldier revolts across Germany. [✓] [X]

27. ►► Stormtroopers outran their supply lines, exhausted their troops, and faced fresh American reinforcements — Germany suffered 240,000 casualties and captured empty cratered ground while the arrival of fresh US troops tilted the balance permanently. [✓] [X]

28. ►► The "Stab-in-the-Back" myth (Dolchstoßlegende) — Defeated generals like Ludendorff falsely blamed politicians, socialists, and Jews, later exploited by Adolf Hitler to destroy democracy. [✓] [X]

29. ►►► It provided a universal tomb for hundreds of thousands whose sons had no known grave and whose bodies were never found — With over 500,000 British soldiers having no identified resting place, any grieving mother could believe the Unknown Warrior was her own son. [✓] [X]

30. ►►► It created an overwhelming desire for peace and appeasement, vowing that such industrial slaughter must "Never Again" happen — The catastrophic loss of 20 million lives produced profound anti-war sentiment across Britain and France, directly informing the policy of appeasing Hitler. [✓] [X]

UNIT CONCEPTUAL FOUNDATIONS • 4 CORE ANCHORS

ATTRITION: A military strategy of wearing down the enemy to the point of physical collapse through continuous losses of personnel and material (e.g. Verdun, The Somme).

TOTAL WAR: A war that involves the complete mobilization of entire populations, industrial economies, and resources, erasing boundaries between soldiers and civilians.

CONSCRIPTION: Compulsory enlistment of civilians into the armed forces, introduced in Britain by the Military Service Acts in 1916 after voluntary recruitment dwindled.

ARMISTICE: An agreement made by opposing sides in a war to stop fighting for a certain time; the ceasefire signed in Compiègne on 11 November 1918 ended hostilities.
