ENQUIRIES 1–3

ENQUIRY 1: GERMAN UNIFICATION & REVANCHE

1. ► Prussia — Prussia used its disciplined military, rail network, and industrial Krupp steel power to forge a united German Empire under Kaiser Wilhelm I. [✓] [X]

2. ► Alsace-Lorraine — Annexing this territory created an enduring French national desire for vengeance and restitution known as "Revanche". [✓] [X]

3. ►► It risked being attacked simultaneously by France in the west and Russia in the east — Germany feared its army would be split in two, leading Chancellor Bismarck to construct cautious alliances to isolate France. [✓] [X]

4. ►► Through decisive military victories followed by pragmatic alliances to keep peace — Bismarck believed great questions were decided by industrial military strength, but maintained peace through treaties like the Reinsurance Treaty with Russia. [✓] [X]

5. ►►► He abandoned Bismarck's cautious diplomacy and allowed the treaty with Russia to lapse — Dropping the treaty left Russia isolated and distrustful, prompting Tsar Alexander III to sign a defensive military alliance with democratic France in 1894. [✓] [X]

6. ►►► It placed a massive industrial and military giant directly in the centre of Europe — A united Germany instantly eclipsed older powers in population and coal-steel production, alarming Britain and driving France toward encirclement strategies. [✓] [X]

ENQUIRY 2: IMPERIAL RIVALRY & MOROCCO

7. ► A "place in the sun" (Platz an der Sonne) — Wilhelm II argued that Germany's rapid industrial growth entitled it to global colonial possessions equal to Great Britain. [✓] [X]

8. ► The Scramble for Africa — European powers seized 90% of Africa to control rubber, minerals, cotton, and strategic trade coaling stations. [✓] [X]

9. ►► To challenge French influence in North Africa and test the strength of the Anglo-French Entente — Wilhelm declared support for the Sultan of Morocco, hoping to humiliate France and drive a wedge between Britain and France, but his tactic failed. [✓] [X]

10. ►► To use "gunboat diplomacy" to extort French colonial territory in the Congo — Germany demanded French land in exchange for accepting French control over Morocco, prompting Britain to threaten war in Lloyd George's Mansion House speech. [✓] [X]

11. ►►► German bullying convinced Britain that Germany was a dangerous rogue state, prompting joint military talks — Rather than driving Britain and France apart, the crises led to secret joint military staff talks and a division of naval defense responsibilities. [✓] [X]

12. ►►► It convinced German leaders they were encircled and normalized aggressive brinkmanship — Repeated colonial confrontations conditioned European publics to expect armed conflict and accelerated peacetime army expansion. [✓] [X]

ENQUIRY 3: NAVAL ARMS RACE & DREADNOUGHT

13. ► HMS Dreadnought — Dreadnought carried ten 12-inch heavy guns and steam turbine engines, revolutionizing naval architecture overnight. [✓] [X]

14. ► Admiral Alfred von Tirpitz — Tirpitz passed the German Naval Laws (1898/1900) to build a battlefleet capable of challenging the Royal Navy in the North Sea. [✓] [X]

15. ►► As an island empire, Britain relied on merchant shipping for raw materials and to feed its population — A hostile naval blockade in the English Channel or North Sea would starve Britain within six weeks, making any naval challenge intolerable. [✓] [X]

16. ►► Building a fleet strong enough that fighting Germany would fatally weaken Britain's global empire — Tirpitz believed fear of losing naval mastery would force Britain to make diplomatic concessions and stay neutral in European wars. [✓] [X]

17. ►►► It wiped out Britain's enormous numerical lead in older pre-dreadnoughts, resetting the race to zero — By making older battleships obsolete, Germany could compete on equal terms by building only new dreadnoughts in modern shipyards. [✓] [X]

18. ►►► It turned friendly trading partners into suspicious rivals and drove Britain toward France and Russia — German naval expansion convinced British statesmen that Germany sought continental domination, ending British "Splendid Isolation". [✓] [X]

ENQUIRY 4: ALLIANCES & BALKAN POWDER KEG

19. ► Great Britain, France, and Russia — Agreements between France, Russia, and Britain settled past imperial disputes and formed a diplomatic counterweight to Berlin and Vienna. [✓] [X]

20. ► Germany, Austria-Hungary, and Italy — The members promised mutual military assistance if attacked by two or more rival great powers. [✓] [X]

21. ►► Ethnic nationalism, crumbling Ottoman rule, and great power rivalry made it highly volatile — Newly independent Balkan states fought two Balkan Wars (1912–13) while Austria-Hungary and Russia competed to fill the Ottoman vacuum. [✓] [X]

22. ►► Bosnia contained a large Slavic population that Serbia wanted to unite into a "Greater Serbia" — The annexation frustrated Serbian nationalist dreams of creating a united South Slav kingdom and ignited intense anti-Austrian terrorism. [✓] [X]

23. ►►► Russia was forced to back down under German threats, vowing never to retreat in the Balkans again — The diplomatic humiliation accelerated Russian rearmament and ensured Russia would mobilize its full army if Serbia was attacked a second time. [✓] [X]

24. ►►► They chained the great powers together so that an attack on one ally triggered mandatory mobilization of all — Treaties transformed a localized Austro-Serbian quarrel into an uncontrollable continental chain reaction of military mobilizations. [✓] [X]

ENQUIRY 5: SARAJEVO & THE JULY CRISIS

25. ► Archduke Franz Ferdinand (heir to the Austro-Hungarian throne) — His assassination during an official inspection tour of Bosnia provided Austrian hawks with the long-sought pretext to crush Serbia. [✓] [X]

26. ► The Black Hand ("Unity or Death") — Led by Serbian military intelligence officer "Apis", the clandestine group sought to unite all South Slavs through armed insurrection. [✓] [X]

27. ►► The "Blank Cheque" — Kaiser Wilhelm II promised German military backing even if Austrian action against Serbia triggered war with Russia. [✓] [X]

28. ►► The Schlieffen Plan — The plan relied on invading neutral Belgium to bypass French border fortresses and encircle Paris rapidly, avoiding a prolonged two-front war. [✓] [X]

29. ►►► Britain had guaranteed Belgian neutrality in the 1839 Treaty of London and could not accept hostile Channel ports — When Germany refused to respect the "scrap of paper" treaty and invaded Belgium, Britain delivered an ultimatum and entered the war to defend the Channel coastline. [✓] [X]

30. ►►► A fatal combination of aggressive risk-taking by leaders and rigid military mobilization timetables — Once Tsar Nicholas II ordered general mobilization, German war plans dictated an immediate preemptive strike through Belgium, leaving zero time for diplomacy. [✓] [X]

UNIT CONCEPTUAL FOUNDATIONS • 4 CORE ANCHORS

MILITARISM: The rapid expansion of armed forces, naval building, and military dominance over government policy (e.g. Dreadnoughts, Schlieffen Plan).

ALLIANCES: Formal diplomatic treaties committing powers to mutual military defence (Triple Alliance vs. Triple Entente), turning local crises continental.

IMPERIALISM: Great power competition for overseas colonies, prestige, and raw materials, exemplified by Kaiser Wilhelm II's aggressive Weltpolitik in Africa.

NATIONALISM: Fierce pride in one's nation and the drive of ethnic minorities (e.g. Slavic Serbs in the Austro-Hungarian Empire) for self-determination.
