Question 3(a): Source Utility [8 marks • 12 mins]

Study Sources B and C. How useful are Sources B and C for an enquiry into the causes of the riots in northern and western cities between 1965 and 1967?

Target: AO3 [8 marks]: Analyse sources on Content, Contextual Knowledge, and Provenance (Nature, Origin, Purpose).

SOURCE B — Primary Evidence

"Our nation is moving toward two societies, one black, one white—separate and unequal... Segregation and poverty have created in the racial ghetto a destructive environment totally unknown to white Americans. What white Americans have never fully understood—but what the Negro can never forget—is that white society is deeply implicated in the ghetto. White institutions created it, white institutions maintain it, and white society condones it. Pervasive discrimination in employment and housing, coupled with routine police harassment, has generated a reservoir of frustration that ignited in Watts, Newark, and Detroit."

Provenance: From the official findings of the National Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders (the Kerner Commission), established by President Lyndon B. Johnson to investigate urban riots.

SOURCE C — Primary Evidence

"We have been begging the white man for freedom for over a century, singing 'We Shall Overcome' while his police beat our heads and his judges throw us in jail. Non-violence has failed to protect Black people in the northern slums. The Civil Rights Act did not give our brothers jobs; it did not tear down the rats and roaches in Harlem and Chicago! Black Power means Black people coming together to organize our own strength. If white police come into our communities acting like an occupying army, Black men have a duty to defend themselves and take control of our own destiny."

Provenance: Speech by SNCC leader Stokely Carmichael delivered to an audience of urban Black youths in Chicago, widely broadcast across national media.

SOURCE B UTILITY (CONTENT & COP): OFFICIAL GOVERNMENT INVESTIGATION IDENTIFYING DEEP STRUCTURAL CAUSES: WHITE RACISM, GHETTOIZATION, HOUSING REDLINING, 30% UNEMPLOYMENT, AND POLICE HOSTILITY. (Analyse Content, Historical Context & Provenance NOP)

SOURCE C UTILITY (CONTENT & COP): EYEWITNESS POLITICAL SPEECH DEMONSTRATING THE IDEOLOGICAL SHIFT TOWARDS BLACK POWER, DISILLUSIONMENT WITH NON-VIOLENCE, AND ACTIVE ANGER AGAINST WHITE POLICE BRUTALITY. Score: [/ 8]

HISTORICAL INTERPRETATIONS 1 & 2

Study Interpretations 1 and 2 below for Questions 3(b), 3(c), and 3(d)

INTERPRETATION 1

"The explosion of urban rebellions in Watts, Chicago, Newark, and Detroit was the direct consequence of intolerable economic despair and de facto segregation in northern ghettos. While the civil rights movement had won voting rights in the South, it had done almost nothing to alleviate poverty, dilapidated tenement housing, and 30% youth unemployment in northern cities. Confined by bank redlining and landlord discrimination into overcrowded slums, and subjected to routine brutality by almost entirely white police forces, young Black urbanites felt completely excluded from American prosperity. The riots were spontaneous eruptions of economic rage against living conditions that legislative civil rights acts had left untouched."

Historian Harvard Sitkoff, 'The Struggle for Black Equality, 1954–1980' (1981)

INTERPRETATION 2

"The wave of urban violence from 1965 onwards was driven primarily by a profound ideological transformation: the rise of Black Power and militant Black nationalism. Inspired by the uncompromising rhetoric of Malcolm X and popularized by Stokely Carmichael, younger activists completely rejected Martin Luther King's philosophy of non-violence and interracial integration. Black Power taught urban youth that non-violence was humiliating and ineffective, encouraging them instead to confront white institutional power directly. The fiery speeches of SNCC and Black Panther leaders gave voice and political legitimacy to rebellion, transforming street unrest into conscious acts of defiance against white authority."

Historian Clayborne Carson, 'In Struggle: SNCC and the Black Awakening of the 1960s' (1981)

Question 3(b): Main Difference in Views [4 marks • 5 mins]

Score: [/ 4]

Study Interpretations 1 and 2. They give different views about the main cause of the urban riots between 1965 and 1967. What is the main difference between these views? Explain your answer, using details from both interpretations.

Formula: Interpretation 1 argues that the urban riots were spontaneous eruptions driven by severe economic deprivation, poverty, and de facto ghetto segregation in northern cities, whereas Interpretation 2 argues that the riots were primarily caused by an ideological shift towards Black Power, Malcolm X's rhetoric, and the rejection of non-violence.

Question 3(c): Reason Why Interpretations Differ [4 marks • 5 mins]

Score: [/ 4]

Suggest one reason why Interpretations 1 and 2 give different views about the main cause of the urban riots between 1965 and 1967. You may use Sources B and C to help explain your answer.

Examiner Guidance: The historians have different views because they have relied on different historical evidence. The author of Interpretation 1 has focused on socio-economic investigations such as the Kerner Commission Report in Source B, which emphasized structural poverty and housing discrimination. In contrast, the author of Interpretation 2 has examined political speeches and activist manifestos such as Source C, emphasizing the radical rhetoric of Stokely Carmichael and the appeal of Black Power.
